I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

Nothing to report.

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

A. The Eleventh OO/C Refresher Course, built around the theme of "exploitation of scientific and non-scientific institutions," began on Wednesday, 11 June. Twenty-five field and Headquarters personnel are enrolled in this course. *

B. At the suggestion of [] one ORR student (GS-114) withdrew from Reading Techniques No. 45. This student's scores on the four pre-tests indicated an unusually versatile reading pattern. Although he could have increased his skill somewhat, [] felt that the amount of increase might not be worth his spending 40 hours in training. He will, however, be scheduled for the 20-hour Executive Skills course, if it is continued.

III. PERSONNEL NOTES

A. [] has asked for security approval to instruct an evening class in reading improvement at the Department of Agriculture Graduate School.

B. On Friday, 6 June, [] completed Cornell University's one week institute for training specialists.
